CPYRGHT

Mr. and Mrs. Dw

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight M. Colins of Bethesda, both employed by the Central Intelligence : Agency, died this week in London after they were struck by a delivery truck while crossing. Piccadilly Circus.

The accident occurred Monday morning, two days after they left home for a 30-day vacation in Europe,

Mr. and Mrs. Collins, both 59, of 7937 Deepwell dr., were employed in what the CIA described as responsible administrative positions at the Agency headquarters in McLean.

Mrs. Collins was instantly killed. Mr. Collins was hospitalized with a fractured skull and died Tuesday.

Sunday morning. He said they each. had planned to leave for Paris their vacation.

MR. AND MRS. DWIGHT M. COLLINS

Chase pkwy. nw., said the cou- They were married in 1958. It ple had arrived in London was the second marriage for ert D. Barnes, taught school at Dwight Collins Jr., of Berk vesterday on the second leg of of Yale University, was a been a teacher at Washing the Philippines. He is also sur-The Collinses. joined the the Middle School at Landon ter from 1944 to 1949.

market while Alderson

Mrs. Collins, then Mrs. Rob- McKegney, of Guilford, Conach. Sidwell Friends School for ley, Calif., and Mrs. Van Fos-Mr. Collins, a 1930 graduate two years before 1951 and had ter, of Clark Air Force Base in. teacher and senior master of ton's Remedial Education Cen-vived by a brother, George, of

Commenced to be

Mrs. Collins was born Washington. She was a grad ate of the old Central Hig School here and a 1929 gradi ate of George Washington Un versity.

In addition to her fathe Mrs. Collins is survived ! three children from her fo mer marriage. They are Eug nia Hancock Martin, of Was ington, Robert D. Barnes, Bethesda, and William Barnes, of Silver Spring.

Mr. Collins is survived five children from his pr vious marriage. They Susan Collins, who lives wi her mother; Lucy Collins, Mrs. Collins's father, Wil-CIA in 1951 after teaching ca-School for Boys in Bethesda Chevy Chase; Donald Colling I. Denning, of 5517 Chevy reers in the Washington area. from 1932 to 1951. of Washington; Mrs. Patrick Sarasota, Fla.